THE PRESENT GRAND COMMANDER.

Sir George Mellersh, Eminent Commander of Cyrene Commandery No. 4, of Memphis, was elected R. E. Commander upon the firstballot, and that too by a very flattering vote—receiving almost a two-thirds vote, a majority only being necessary to a choice. This compliment was richly merited and justly beatowed, as I am informed in the position of Deputy Grand Commander for two years past, and by his great devation to Templar Masonry and exertions in its behalf, done as much, if not more, than any other member of the order to advance its interests in this juris-After testing the question again and der to advance its interests in this jurisdiction.

The business of the conclave was completed by Wednesday noon, and by six p.m. the last of those attending left for their homes, feeling, I am sure, highly delighted with their visit. Great praise is due the citizens of Clarksville for the manuer in which they entertained the
